ABOUT US

Mul Chowk Kitchen is a well-loved Nepalese and Indian restaurant with locations in Campsie, Sydney, and Mawson, Canberra. Known for its authentic flavors, generous portions, and warm hospitality, it offers a rich menu inspired by the diverse cuisines of Nepal and North India.

The Sydney branch, established in 2017 at 66 Evaline Street, Campsie, serves customer favorites like momos (dumplings), goat curry, butter chicken, biryanis, and tandoori platters. With cozy indoor seating, outdoor options, and a BYO policy, it's ideal for casual meals, family outings, and group gatherings.

The Canberra location, opened in 2022 in Mawson Place, features a vibrant, welcoming space with traditional décor and occasional live music events. The menu caters to all dietary needs, including vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free options.

Mul Chowk Kitchen also offers expert catering services, backed by over 10 years of experience. Since 2015, the team has catered events across Sydney and beyond, starting from their roots at Gorkha Place. From weddings and birthdays to corporate functions, they provide flexible packages and professional service to make any occasion flavorful and stress-free.

Whether dining in or hosting an event, Mul Chowk Kitchen delivers a true taste of Himalayan hospitality.
